Hood's Sarsaparilla Purifies the Blood and Restores Health.

Mr. F. W. Stowell Wilmot, S. Dak.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: "About four years ago my wife was troubled with salt rheum, Although we tried nearly everything it got worse instead of better and spread over both of her hands so that she could hardly use them. Finally she commenced to use Hood's Barsaparilla and when she had taken two bottles her hands were entirely healed and she has not since been troubled. In December, 1802, my neck was covered with boils of a Scrofulous Nature.

There were sixteen of them at once and as soon as they healed others would break out. My neck finally became covered with ridges and parilla, and after taking four bottles the boils had all healed and the sears have disappeared. I recommended Hood's Sarsaparilla to all suf-fering from any disorder of the blood." F. W. STOWELL, Wilmot, South Dakota.

Young men and maidens confide their pretty secrets to her discretion, and older people enjoy the deli cate attentions which she delights to bestow. Should work be a stern necessity of this spinster's life, she must often find herself overweighed with cares and anxieties; but, to her credit be it said, there is almost never the inclination to indulge in vain and useless repinings. Thus the real lone woman is not the one who persistently and cheerfully conquers the difficulties of a solitary life, meeting its trials with a disarming smile, and Christiana. guarding herself against falling into that ineffably dreary state which is meant by the designation; nor is it she who, debarred from all activity by ill health, possesses in perfection the rare art of self-effacement, and who tranquilly and deftly fits '--- lf to her "perpetual maidenhood."
